

HALLOWEEN TRADITIONS IN THE U.S.A.

BOO!

Halloween is on October 31st and is celebrated in many ways all over the world.

Halloween began about 2,000 years ago as a celebration of the Celtic new year.

Halloween customs and traditions have Irish roots. They became popular in America after the Irish fled their country to escape the potato famine.

TRADITIONAL HALLOWEEN ACTIVITIES

- Pumpkin picking at a pumpkin patch
- Pumpkin carving
- Trick - or - Treating
- Watching movies

Megan and her sister, Michal, picking pumpkins.

Can you name any of these costumes in English?

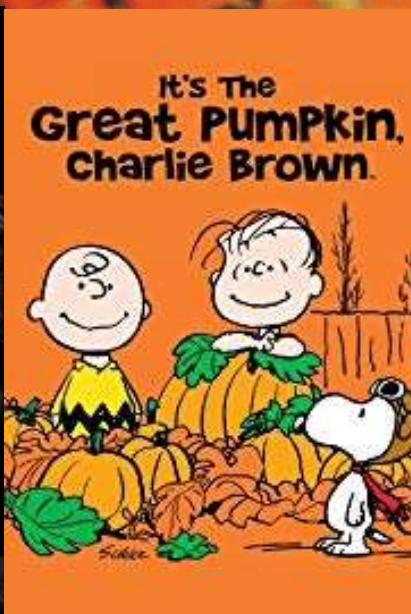

Megan and her mom at Mickey's-Not-So-Scary Halloween Party in Disney World

OUR FAVORITE HALLOWEEN MOVIES

Witches, warlocks, skeletons, and monsters

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE?

HTTPS://WWW.YOUTUBE.COM/WATCH?V=2DJQEZQLVRA

Megan's cat, Little Bit

SUPERSTITIONS

Many people are fearful of black cats. They believe if one crosses their path, it will bring them bad luck.

People are also superstitious of the number 13.

*In 2016, Americans spent
$8.4 billion on Halloween*

HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

Any questions?